Revitalize Yourself this Summer

Summer is in full swing! While the exotic vacations and afternoons on the water can be relaxing, it's important that you maintain balance and overall wellness. At Dr. Jhonny Salomon Plastic Surgery & Med Spa we're continually seeking to customize combinations of non-invasive and invasive procedures to encourage maximum healing from the inside out.

The Newest Advancement in Healing | Vitamin IV Therapy

For decades, scheduling cosmetic surgery meant taking excessive time off work and life to go into hiding while the bruising and swelling subsided. Today, surgeons are battling these side effects by combining complementary treatments before and after surgery to accelerate the healing process. Dr. Jhonny Salomon believes the surgical outcome is based not only on artistic vision, but the overall wellness of one's body. He has customized a personal treatment plan that combines the elimination of certain foods and vices, while adding oral vitamins prior to surgery followed by Vitamin IV Therapy post surgery. Read More...

Surgical Spotlight | Tummy Tuck with Liposuction

Tummy Tuck, also known as abdominoplasty, has been used for many years to remove the excess fat and skin located in the abdominal area. This procedure also focuses greatly on restoring weakened or separated stomach muscles to create a smoother and firmer profile.

Many individuals turn to undergoing abdominoplasty after they have exhausted all methods possible in the weight-loss battle. For many, diet and exercise just won't cut it as there are various factors that can encourage abdominal weight gain such as age, heredity, pregnancy, and extreme fluctuations in weight.

On various occasions, surgeons combine tummy tuck with liposuction to maximize results. Read more...

Freeze The Fat Away! | CoolSculpting

Weight-loss is a battle many struggle with. Despite efforts to maintain a healthy lifestyle and exercise regularly, it often seems impossible to rid ourselves of those taunting muffing tops, love handles, and belly bulge.

With the summer season in full swing, BBQs and summer soirees are filling our calendars and making it virtually impossible to maintain the beach body we worked so hard for. This being said, Dr. Jhonny Salomon Plastic Surgery & Med Spa has the secret to regaining that beach sexy body, while enjoying all that summer has to offer. In as little as three weeks, you can freeze your fat away with CoolSculpting! Read more...
